

סטארטר ביטוי מחדש - יחידה 2 (שאלות 1-4)

1. "A pint of sweat will save a gallon of blood." (George S. Patton)
 - (1) Great effort does not ensure a painless outcome.
 - (2) Little effort can prevent much suffering later.
 - (3) Much effort is needed in order to save lives.
 - (4) One must sweat to avoid bleeding.

2. "If you want to cut your own throat, don't come to me for a bandage." (Margaret Thatcher)
 - (1) Ask only a professional for a medical advice.
 - (2) A slit throat cannot be solved with a mere bandage.
 - (3) Do not seek the help of others for harms you inflict upon yourself.
 - (4) Others can help with problems one causes to himself.

3. "Just cause you got the monkey off your back doesn't mean the circus has left town." (George Carlin)
 - (1) Dealing with many problems, one should solve one at a time.
 - (2) If you have a monkey on your back, you better go to the circus.
 - (3) Solving a major problem might solve the rest of them.
 - (4) The source of a problem might remain, even if one problem is solved.

4. "Lie down with dogs, wake up with fleas." (Benjamin Franklin)
 - (1) Associating with bad people will make one acquire their faults.
 - (2) One harming others should not be surprised when they revenge.
 - (3) Dogs may cause fleas if one insists sleeping with them.
 - (4) One can avoid problems by dealing with them beforehand.
